Welcome to Malamav Community and Human Services, Inc.

It's a common notion that those who are developmentally disabled might find it difficult to find fulfillment in life. For these individuals, the road to happiness and independence is wrought with so many struggles and challenges.

But this notion can be changed. At Malamav Community and Human Services, Inc., it is our goal to partner with these individuals and their families, guiding them through their incredibly tough journeys and providing the support and assistance needed to achieve their goals.

The lifestyle of our clients' dreams, the one they have always adored, is what we seek to accomplish through our top-notch facilities and services. While we never know what life throws at us, it is important to always be ready and never give up. With the enduring help of Malamav Community and Human Services, Inc., one is always guaranteed to have the means to live an independent and dignified life.
